

Yes! Its true... after teaching ordinary people to make a killing online for the last 7 years I have decided to retire my simple sites big profits training software in 2015 because...

“I Have Found That Is Actually Much Easier, Less Stressful And More Profitable To Build Simple Little Sites And Profit Online Than Trying To Teach Others To Do The Same...”

BUT... We Will Be Going Out With A Bang And Taking You With Us In What Will Be Hailed As... “The Last Internet Marketing Course You’ll Ever Need To Make A Fortune Online”

Dear Friend,

Lets face the facts here...

Fact: less than ½ percent of everyone who “tries” to make money online ever ends up making more than one copper penny...

Fact: as a teacher of internet marketing the ½ percent is much easier to work with than the 99.5% do nothing..

I have a little confession to make here...

But first... a story.

Ever since I was a kid, I was interested in what makes people get the results they claim that they ultimately want...

I looked around my family and found many people who hated their jobs, their lives, their weight, and just seemed to struggle thru life as if they were waiting to die rather than enjoying the wonderful journey life can be.

Being the type of person I am, I was always interested in finding ways to help people do more, become more, and ultimately get what they really wanted.

During high school I became a preacher, I focused really hard on helping people become what I thought was a "good Christian" and was very worried and stressed about those who struggled and could not or would not see and believe what I thought was the "truth."

This really bothered me because I poured my heart and soul into helping them.

Over and over I would try to help these people, and as if like clockwork, they inevitably went back as the scripture says...

"They Returned To Their Old Ways As A Dog Returns To His Vomit."

This really troubled me because part of my life's worth was tied up in "making these people change!"

I thought if I could just say the right thing, be there for them 24/7 and work with them... they would finally "get it."

The fact that they did not get it made me feel responsible and like I was the failure.

But, as Jesus once said "don't cast your pearls before swine" meaning don't spend your time trying to change people who really don't want to be changed.

Unfortunately that saying never really sunk in and I was destined to a life of pain in trying to push unmovable elephants up the staircase of life.

Go On...

I guess it was in part my own EGO and narcissism telling me that I could actually change people if I was able to say the right thing, do the right thing, or give enough of myself.

Fast forward a few years to when I started my internet marketing business in march of 2000...

When I first started my internet business I believed 100% that this would work and I knew I would do whatever it took to actually make it happen.

My family and friends laughed when I bought my first domain name and set out on what seemed to be an impossible goal at the time of making my first one hundred thousand dollars per year.

I remember getting phone calls from creditors for amounts that seemed insane to me at the time, and I felt like I was alone in this world where everyone wanted money I didn't have.

My heart literally sunk with each phone call, dreading another NASTY creditor telling me how much of a loser I was and how much I owed them...

I was literally a slave to numbers, a slave in the prison of my own making, a slave to this illusion of how I visualized money.

Keep Reading...

Deep down I believed that it was really everyone else's fault that I had ended up where I was.

If they would just give me the break I needed...

If they would just teach me what I needed to learn...

If they would just sit down and tell me the secret...

If I just had enough money...

Then I would get it... I would finally feel safe... life would be ok.

As if there was some magical sequence of key strokes I could type that would turn my computer into a money getting machine...

My life resonated the depressing cry of if only, if only, if only...

I felt like the wealthy, the gurus were holding something back... like it was THEIR FAULT I wasn't happy or rich.

I mean after all... they KNEW the secret that would make me rich, solve all my problems, and finally get me on track and they are just sitting on it!

Charging ENORMOUS fees for half ass training products, hard to understand boring videos, and nothing I can really use... like right now...

No Real Secrets... Where Are The Secrets?

Next Page...

At that time I was making just enough to be broke by building simple little websites for local business and things like that.

Then one fait full day on july 4th 2000, I remember clearly after coming home from my dads house that night,

I checked my email and found three sales for $7.43 EACH in my clickbank account.

That event changed my belief system forever.. I had just made over $22 while I wasn't working.

I wasn't setting up websites, looking up niches, or anything.

I was gone all day and my site made me money.

This gave me a feeling like a drug addict who just had his first taste. I couldn't get enough.

The rush I felt when checking my stats became addictive.

I was addicted to numbers on screens, bank account balances, checks, and MONEY!

It was that simple experience that I owe all my millions of online earnings too..

Without that one experience nothing would have changed. That experience turned my head knowledge to heart knowledge and I now KNEW what I had to do to get where I thought I wanted to be... RICH!

So I went like crazy. At the time the easiest thing to do was to help other people get ranked on the search engines and help them get results.

Go On...

I set up sites to sell my niche marketing services and actually did pretty well.

In 2002 I had my first $100K year... actually it was 167,000... ☺

I felt unstoppable as if a fire had been lit under my ass and the only way to make it go away was to build more sites and make more money...

In 2003 I had just finished ranking a site for a client about "parrot training" and got him some killer results, he had said to me...

"Marcus, why don't you just find these niches, rank your own sites, and sell affiliate products... then you wouldn't have to deal with customers, refunds, or anything like that"

In the past I had done this in part...

In 2002 I had a gas scooter website that sold scooters during the holidays, we made over $16,000 in one month selling these things and drop shipping them.

It was pretty cool because I never had to touch the scooters, ship them, or anything.

I did have to answer the calls and deal with returns though. Which was kind of a pain...

So this whole affiliate thing now intrigued me more than ever.

I mean could I really just promote sites, never touch any sales, customer support, or anything and just get paid...

Keep Reading...

At first I tested small with a little site about cable boxes and another site about dating tips.

The first weekend the sites went live (they only took about an hour to set up) they ranked really well, got traffic, and I made over $1200 that weekend while I was out of town...

- I didn't baby sit the sites
- I didn't write content every day
- I simply just checked the stats when I got home and waited for the checks.

After this second money getting experience I was again hooked, but this time on the thought of running tons of simple little sites that made 50-100 bucks a day or more each...

Back then we didn't have the cool tools of today like google keyword planner and blogs with plugins that would do whatever we wanted, heck adsense didn't even exist.

I relied on the old "goto"suggestion tool and old fashioned front page express html editor (you know the one that came with windows 98 ;)

In hind sight had I been equipped with the tools you have today I probably would have made 10 times as much and a lot faster to boot.

So on I went, finding niche keywords, getting rankings, and promoting affiliate offers. My first year of this we did close to $300,000 MOSTLY ALL PROFIT.

Go On...

I had sites about smiley faces that did like 70K a year, sites about clickbank offers, mortgages, you name it we had it... if there was someone searching for it... my job was to set it up and make profit.

The goal was simple, find the words people use to search, get the traffic, lead people to affiliate offers... And It Worked in any niche with any traffic method.

In 2003 we moved back to California and I was still on track making about 30-40K a month on my simple sites and enjoying all my free time with my girls.

Working from home can be a big blessing.

2004 came and went with similar results and the purchase of our first house, I was just 24 at the time and was making a good lil killing online.

In 2006 I got into pay per click advertising with google adwords and was able to make over $1,067,000 that year which still to date was our most profitable and easiest year ever.

Isn't it interesting how many of the best results in life come from those times that hardly seem like you are working at all... like it just flows to you as if by magic?

In 2007 a friend of mine had asked me to teach internet marketing to his group via teleseminar because his speaker had canceled out.

Next Page...

Now...I wasn't aware that I was supposed to sell anything on this call, but by the time the call was over everyone was so excited about how I was making a killing with these simple little sites that they were literally begging me to teach a course on it...

And thus, simple sites big profits was born.

I ran my teaching business along side my sites and made a good bit on both as time went by.

A few close friends from my preaching days asked if I could show them what I was doing as well and I did...

One of them went on to make close to 6 Million Dollars in just a few short years we also had some that earned a few thousand a month, 100K plus per year, and on and on... the results were very rewarding emotionally for me to watch people get results and change their lives.

It wasn't all rainbows and roses though... being the kind of person I am and really wanting people to get results
I ran into some serious issues.

You see I knew beyond a shadow of a doubt that anyone who followed my teaching would get results fast... and knowing that became a bit of a burden to me.

Because of the fact that many of my students no matter what I told them just wouldn't do what it takes to make it...

Keep Reading...

Of course they called and emailed me with their stories of woe and how it was DO OR DIE time for them and they would do anything... yet when push came to shove... nothing got done...

It wasn't that the work was super hard (most sites can be started in less than an hour)

It wasn't that it was risky and cost a lot (most people can start for a few hundred bucks)

And it wasn't like there was no help (sure sometimes you had to wait for help but you could be certain that when you did get the help it was the help that would make you rich if followed)

I took this personally... as if there was some flaw in "Marcus" as a person for not being able to meet their insane expectations that no human could meet.

I got super depressed, lonely, and beat up... my alcoholism increased rapidly and I even thought of taking my life...

Luckily my wife called in a 5150, sent me to the Looney bin, and got me into rehab. . .

After all if my success in life and happiness is tied to others, and others don't move...

Then I Am Pretty Much Screwed...

Much like in my preaching days where I felt like it was my fault no one was converting and no one was getting the results... as if I had anything to do with it.

Continued 000

Luckily I Learned Much Later That There Are Things And People In Life That I Just Can't Change... And There Is No Point Getting Excited About It... Just Accept It And Help Those Who Are Willing To Make The Change...

The fact of the matter is people are going to do what they really want to do... and sadly many just wanna be lazy and not DO what it takes to make this work...

Recently I was asking my trainer at my gym how many people are signed up for the gym...

He said the number was about 4,000 people that have active paid memberships...

Then I asked how many people actually used their membership...

About 350 people... or less than ten percent...

Was it the gym's fault... no... they had their machines and weights and everything you need... heck im sure if I asked they would even make me a free workout schedule...

So then what was the deal... what was the real issue here...

Why wasn't anyone doing what they needed to do to get the result they claimed they really wanted.

So I started to examine my own life...

What was the idea behind the motivation that led me to do this business and what is it that stops me from doing the things I really want to do.

keep Reading ooo

This became an obsession to me... and a goal to figure out that could help millions of people including myself and my students.

What was it that made me personally...

- Able to make money online almost effortlessly
- Unable to stop drinking on my own
- Able to learn at a tremendously fast rate and read everything I can
- Unable to get off my ass and go to the gym each day

I mean I really wanted all of these results...

Why didn't I achieve them, why were some easier than others and some seemingly impossible.

Was it all a matter of just pulling myself up by the bootstraps or was there something else going on... was there a higher level of persuasion going on in my mind stopping me from getting the results I want.

Here's what I found out...

Your brain is hardwired to take the path of least resistance. . .

It is constantly looking for that easy way, the way to not do anything but get results that you can live with... IE to survive is safer than thrive.

Combine this with our consumer culture where life is about what you have, how you look, and the dream of life rather than actually living it...

Next Page...

And you have a stone cold recipe for failure that makes a lot of people really rich and the rest are left trying to fend for themselves trying to cut thick concrete with butter knives.

Its like the old story of Pavlov and his dogs.

Pavlov had these dogs and he was trying to learn how the mind works.

So he decided to pair the ringing of a bell in the minds of the dogs with the expectation and fulfillment of receiving food.

Day after day he would ring his bell... ring ring... the dogs would come running and get food.

After a while their brains started pairing the bell sound with food so much that all Pavlov needed to do is ring a bell, and their tongues would hang down to their feet and they would start drooling like a kid on Christmas eve, though no food was in sight.

Essentially what happened is the dogs were trained to follow the wrong cue.

Much in the same way you and I are following the cue of dreaming a dream vs actually attaining it.

Now I could go ahead and put pictures of fancy houses, crisp dollar bills, cars, woman, men, checks, wealth, whatever you are into... and have you foaming at the mouth like pavlovs dogs...

Continued 000

THIS IS WHY SO MANY PEOPLE BUY SO MANY PRODUCTS BUT NEVER SEE RESULTS!!!

They are simply salivating on the wrong bell.

The truth of the matter is that YES you can have all that stuff till your heart's desire... but first you must retrain your mind. (More about this later ;)

The big secret is that the real, worthwhile goals in life, whether its being a better parent, working out, making money, or whatever.. Really Doesn't Take That Much Effort At All...

That Is The Big Secret... Working Out And Eating Right Doesn't Take 1000 Courses, 15 Trainers, And A Ton Of Pain And Personal Anguish...

Truth Be Told... After That Original Pain (the first workout, the first step, asking out the first girl, making the first dollar)...

Everything else gets easier...

It's All About Making That First Right Move In The Right Direction Followed By Little Moves Consistently Each Week That Build Upon That First Bit...

When I first set out to go to the gym ill have to admit...

Here is this guy in the internet marketing world who has made it... people line up to hear me talk and listen to what I have to say...

Go On...

Put me in a gym, standing 5'1, 140 pounds, barely able to get thru 10 pushups... and im terrified.

I am deathly afraid of what people will think, how people will respond.

And my mind goes a mile a minute... what if I drop the weights, what if an attractive woman comes up and sees me lifting 10 pounders, what if I'm too fat, what if I throw up in the parking lot... what if what if what if.

I was like a Pavlov dog fearing what I feared back in high school when I used to get made fun of and beat up.

That's enough to stop anyone from going to the gym... but lets look at the other side of the coin.

What if no one gives a flying shit... what if they are there to work out and don't care what I am doing.

What if they have the mindset... hey... he's here isn't he.

After all you wouldn't be embarrassed to go to the doctor if you got sick... that is where you are supposed to go... that's what you are supposed to do... and you really don't care that you have a bulge hanging out of your head, or a twisted arm, or broken foot.

WHY... because you know you need to be there.

Lets take this same approach with money.

In my family money was always a big deal.

There was the uncle who made a lot.

Dad who was the six figure guy with his Mercedes that was so important that my brother decided to clean it one day with 409 and wreck the paint... can't blame a five year old for cleaning dad's big fancy car ;)

Mom and her husband who didn't make that much and drove old cars and hated their work.

And on and on the family goes... your worth was quite literally the money you had, the houses you bought, the cars you drove, and material crap.

Almost as if it's ok to weigh 500 pounds if you are a super rich guy, or it's ok to be an asshole because you have money or whatever.

Here is the real secret.. this will liberate you and help you make as much as you want.

It really does not matter.

My mom and her husband would spend hours saying things like "that guy thinks hes cool" or "she just flaunts her wealth" or "it must be nice to have all that money."

They spent a good portion of their lives looking at how everyone else was wrong and bad and never once looking to make their own lives better... be it financially, physically... or what not...

Go On...

Another Bible Verse... man the preaching seems to be coming back to me today...

"take the big fat log out of your own eye before telling others about the little speck in theirs..."

Which is to say... don't worry about what others are doing... worry about your own life... that's the one you can change... that's the one you can make better... you can't do a damn thing about the other guy...

Truth be told, we have no freaking idea what others think... perhaps the person owns a house cause he likes big houses, perhaps they like fancy cars, we really don't know nor does it matter.

This To Me Is The Most Liberating Feeling Ever...
The Feeling Of Being Alone In A Gym Or Wherever...
There To Do Your Work No Matter What Others
Think Because You Are Doing It For You...

Are You As A Person Not Worth More Than The Opinions Of Others?

Are You As A Person Able To Do What You Want, What You Know Is Good, To Make Things Better For Yourself And Your Family?

If You Believe You Are Worth It.. It's Time To Start Acting Like It..

So here is the deal... you have these dreams, and a lot of these dreams take money to realize... that's just a fact of life...

Next Page...

But now you know that money really isn't all its cracked up to be and following my advice (like really doing it and asking questions) you can get all you want to your little heart's desire.

So allow yourself to dream a little... take out a pen and write in your top three dreams that you wish to accomplish with your newfound money...

Be Detailed and attach the feeling you want...

Example: I want to make enough money so I never again have to feel the worry of not having enough for my family and I can finally give them the life they want.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Ok... now allow yourself to dream about life having met those goals, forget about what others think and what others are doing, making, earning, and focus on you.

keep Reading ooo

How do you want to feel right now?

Do you want the security of knowing that no matter what you can always make enough to do what you need to do?

Do you want to feel as free as a bird, not tied down to any work schedule, time sheet, paycheck, boss, or anything else that holds you back from being you.

Are you dreaming of more time for your family, picturing yourself at every school event for the kids or grandkids, travel, fun with your significant other, A life of laughter and joy.

Do you see yourself giving to others and being kind, able to do as you wish, knowing that no matter what... you will make more each day from your simple sites... even when you are not working?

EXCELLENT WORK... now I want you to know that you can feel that right now... you can be liberated from the pain of lack, the pain of have to, the pain of never enough... as if a huge weight has been lifted from your shoulders...

Imagine waking up tomorrow knowing that you have everything you need to get even just $100,000 per year online in a super easy way..

Remember how I said that my million dollar year was the easiest.

You can do this too.. its not hard, you just need to believe in yourself, forget about what others think say, and do.. its not about them... its about YOU and the results YOU want...

HECK sometimes when I KNOW something will work.. I don't even tell my wife.. like the times I spent 10K on coaching and just did it because I know it works.

We didn't really have it at the time but sometimes I know I just gotta do what I know works.. then MAKE it work no matter the price.

Fact of the matter.. its gonna be 2015 in less than 24 hours here.. and I believe that you know that what I teach works and you know if you do it (with my help) you WILL make it.

Because it really comes down to three things...

1. Do you want it... do you really want the results and are you willing to do what it takes... if you are write "Marcus' I Know This Works... I Am Willing To Do What It Takes... Signed Your Name

2. Are You Willing To Follow My Directions And Work At This For One Full Year, And Dedicate At Least 15 Minutes A Day On Your New Business?

3. Are You Ready To Finally Get Past The Hurdle Of Getting That First Check And Finally Feel The Experience And Pride Of Making Money With Your Internet Business?

If you answered yes to the above three questions then you are ready...

If not then go buy a big tv and enjoy your life... stop kidding yourself about internet marketing because even if I gave you a profitable site if you are not willing to work it... you would probably just screw it up anyway.

Remember earlier how I mentioned the ole... "don't cast your pearls to the swine" bit...

This is the part where you decide if you are gonna be a swine or if you're gonna get the pearls.

In 2015 we are changing things up and its all about you and all about results... and I know that you know if you do what I say you will get results.

AND I don't want a bunch of swine in there screwing up my numbers by saying things don't work when they really haven't even tried a damn thing.

This is about the serious people... the ones who a year from now will look back on today as the day of the important decision to change things for the better...

To the ones ready to stop floundering in the ocean of money, complaining that there isn't enough, and start getting some for yourself by providing value to the market place, learning new things, and helping people.

Here is a list of what I will be teaching you in 2015... each lesson will be one week long containing of videos, worksheets, notes, personal help, and webinars... you will also get the softwares you need to perform each task and you will be getting results from week one... if you do as I say I will show you exactly how to make your investment pay many many times over...

When I think of the $100,000 PLUS I spent on learning this business I cant help but think that its just a measly drop in the bucket compared to the millions I have earned and the potential to earn millions more each year I work at it.

See, you can spend years and years learning tactics, ideas, concepts, and theory.. like facebook ads, or MSN, or list building, and perhaps you will even make a lil money.. but if you do not learn the skills that I have obtained over the last years you will never make a living.

There Is One Major Thing You NEED To Learn To Make This Work... The Glue That Holds All Marketing Together... And You Will Learn This In Month One...

Each part of this course has been specifically and delicately designed to go in order of what you need, what you can use, and when you can use it...

After all my personal trainer wouldn't dare take me to the 300 pound weights and make me lift them on our first visit... he knows that would not be the best use for where I am right now...

So we will be focusing on where you are right now and giving you the tools and skills you need to get profitable asap... then move on to the bigger weights... This way you are not out there trying to put all the pieces of the puzzle together on a desert island

After all that is why you are here is it not... you don't just want a few bucks here and there... you want to make money for something like...

- Money To Eliminate Your Worries, Stresses, And Fears...
- Skills To KNOW That You Never Again Have To Worry Because The Value Is In You And No One Can Ever Take That Away...
- Income To Provide The Lifestyle You Desire For You And Your Loved Ones
- The Ability To See New Opportunities And Act On Them So You Can Profit
- And Finally The Freedom To Live Life On Your Terms...

Many people have asked me over the years how long it took me to see my first profit...

My answer... is always INSTANTLY... because I knew something so important that very few know... and that is the basics of how this whole marketing thing works...

I'm gonna show you my instant profit method in month one so you will never ever have to worry about paying for my coaching again because it will come out of what

So the question is... are you ready...

Are you ready to do what it takes...

You can be rest assured that everything I teach is ethical, fun, marketing with the ultimate goal of helping people online...

You will never be told to do anything against your own belief structure... unless your belief is not to make money or help people ;)

I will guide you in a very gentle yet direct way and make sure you get the results you are after...

ALSO very important... remember that I am here to help you and I am also a human... so be friendly on webinars, email, and live chat so I can give you more help and guidance in a fun way...
